

Recruitment Ready helps students prepare for assessment centres by letting them practice a variety of real-life tasks they may be asked to do in the future. Students are given insight into what assessors look for in top-scoring candidates.

Project Reach

23

In-Person
Volunteers

64

Online
Volunteers

1146

Pupils

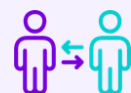

13

Companies

7

Schools

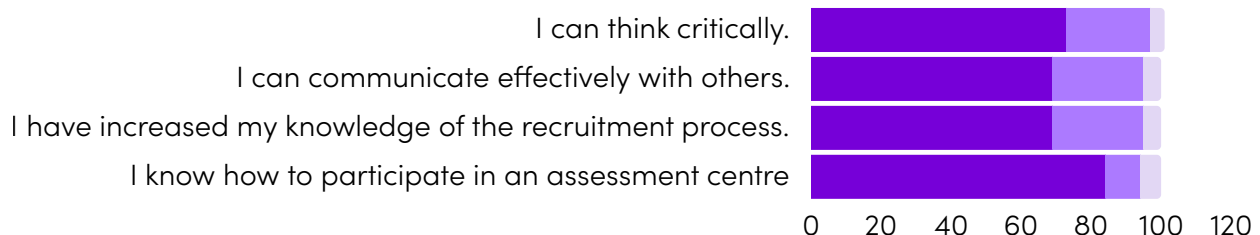

75

Volunteering hours

Student Feedback

As a result of Recruitment Ready students told us...

● Agree ● Unsure ● Disagree

On average...

Students rated
Recruitment Ready 4.1 out of 5.

Student Feedback

Students rated the statement

"I can work well in a team"

4.1 out of 5 stars.

Student, Y12

Oaklands School

"[I enjoyed] feedback from real recruiters on how to improve."

Student, Y12

Oaklands School

"[I learned about the] professional skills needed in assessment centres."

Student, Y10

Morpeth School

"I learnt that you get assessed as soon as you enter the room."

Student, Y10

Langdon Park School

"[I enjoyed that I was] able to ask questions and get informative and trustworthy answers."

Student, Y10

Langdon Park School

"I learnt that even if we don't finish school, we have more opportunities."

Student, Y10

Swanlea School

"[I learnt] transferable skills such as communication, teamwork, and leadership."

Student, Y10

Stepney All Saints School

"[I learnt] that there are many job opportunities in life if your plan doesn't work out."

Volunteer Feedback

Volunteers rated the statement
"I enjoyed volunteering on this event"

4.9 out of 5 stars.

After volunteering on Recruitment Ready, volunteers told us....

Volunteer

Pay.UK

"The Q&A session quickly became one of my favourite parts of the afternoon. The students asked thoughtful questions about careers, interviews, technology and what employers are really looking for. It was encouraging to see so much curiosity from students."

95%

of volunteers would recommend Recruitment Ready to a colleague

Volunteer

Page Group

"[I enjoyed] being able to share experience with young (future) professionals based on their questions and not on a pre-decided script."

Volunteer

Company name

"I enjoyed seeing the interactive quiz and Q&A with the students and the obvious eagerness of everyone involved."