

Skills for Success teaches students the importance of soft skills in the world of work, and how they are vital for all careers. Through a range of fun and engaging activities, refining key skills such as teamwork and communication, students learn how the soft skills they are developing in and out of school will help them in their future careers. Students hear first-hand the skills that employers are looking for through an interactive zoom call with volunteers, and find out more about the skills our volunteers have developed in their careers.
