

Full STEAM Ahead is an inter-school competition run in partnership with The Switch and UBS to excite children about STEAM (Science, Tech, Engineering, Arts, Maths). Children aged 9-11 from Hackney and Tower Hamlets flex their STEAM skills and employability skills through a series of progressive challenges, first in school-based workshops, then with other schools at semi-finals and a grand finale at UBS offices.

Project Reach

152

Volunteers

7

Schools

360

Pupils

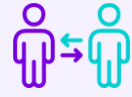

72

Pupils hosted at UBS

15

Events

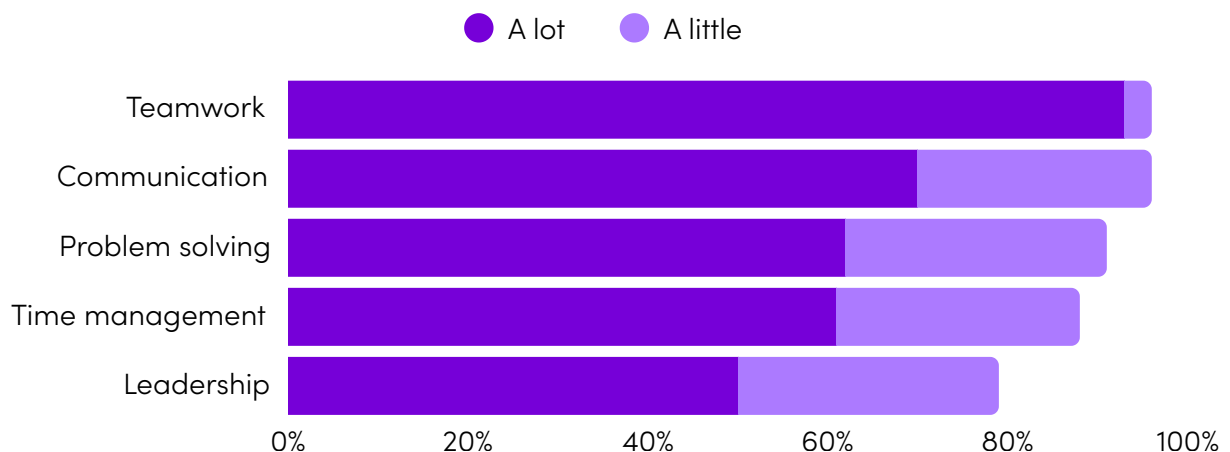

612

Volunteering hours

Student Feedback

As a result of Full STEAM Ahead, pupils said they used the following skills...

On average...

330 students rated the project 9 out of 10

School Feedback

Student Feedback

Student, Year 5

"I felt excited, thrilled, amazed and epic (basically really, really, really, really good)."

Teacher Feedback

As a result of Full STEAM Ahead, teachers said...

Pupils gained confidence using STEAM skills like creativity and problem solving.

Pupils broadened their horizons about different STEAM jobs and careers at UBS.

Pupils raised their aspirations about a future in STEAM.

Assistant Head

Wellington Primary School

"SEND pupils were included and engaged. Thank you for your inclusive approach and support of our SEND pupils today."

Year 5 Teacher

London Fields Primary
School

"A pupil very reluctant to speak out in front of class presented at the semi-final."

Volunteer Feedback

On average...

137 volunteers rated the project 9.6 out 10

After volunteering on Full STEAM Ahead, volunteers said....

Volunteer

UBS

"I enjoyed engaging with both volunteers and children, seeing them work together and think outside of the box"

100%

of volunteers would recommend Full STEAM Ahead to a colleague

Volunteer

UBS

"I loved spending time with the children, watching and helping them grow and problem solve the activity."

Volunteer

UBS

"I enjoyed instigating STEAM concepts with kids."

